DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-22, 30, 38 and 40-44 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-22, 30, 38, and 40-44, drawn to compound of formula I wherein A is a nitrogen, D is a carbon and B is nitrogen namely bicyclopymidine, classified in class 544 subclass 253, class 514, subclass 259.1.
- II. Claims 1-22, 30, 38, and 40-44, drawn to compound of formula I wherein A is carbon, D is a nitrogen, and B is nitrogen namely pyrrolopyridine classified in class 546, subclass 113, class 514 subclass 300.
- III. Claims 1-22, 30, 38, and 40-44, drawn to compound of formula I wherein A and D are nitrogens, and B is carbon namely imidazopyridine classified in class 546, subclass 121, class 514, subclass 393.
- IV. Claims 1-22, 30, 38, and 40-44, drawn to compound of formula I wherein A is a nitrogen, D is a carbon, and B is carbon namely bicyclopyridine classified in class 546 subclass 112, class 514, subclass 299.
- V. Claims 1-22, 30, 38, and 40-44, drawn to compound of formula I wherein A is a carbon, D is a nitrogen, and B is carbon namely bicyclopyrrolidine classified in class 548 subclass 452, class 514, subclass 408.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Invention I, II, III, IV, and V are independent and distinct from each other because they are directed to structurally dissimilar compounds that lack common core namely bicyclopymidine versus pyrrolopyridine versus imidazopyridines versus bicylopyridine versus bicycloprrolidine. Consequently, the groups have different classifications and require separate prior art searches. They can be made and used independently. Art, which may render obvious or anticipate one of the groups would not necessarily do the same for the other group. Each can support a patent, as the compounds of each group are capable of being utilized alone not in combination with other members listed in the Markush group. In addition, it is necessary to classify and search all the hetero cores and such a search of all core s would serious search burden given the limited time available for each application.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, 1-22, 30, 38 and 40-44 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

In view of distinct nature of each invention, the restriction is set forth in writing.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
